South Pacific Shipping Services

In January 2013, Matson expanded its presence in the Pacific with a new South Pacific service. Matson's service offerings include the core trade lanes from New Zealand and Australia to the island nations of Tonga, Fiji, Samoa, American Samoa, Cook Islands, Niue, and Nauru.

Historically, Matson vessels, including freighters and luxury passenger ships, served the South Pacific for five decades, beginning in the 1920s. The company is proud to have returned to the South Pacific and provide the same level of superior customer service and on-time delivery that has distinguished Matson as a leading carrier in the Pacific serving island economies for more than 140 years.

Our service is focused on providing reliable, on-time arrivals for these islands that rely on ocean transportation services to support their economies. We are committed to delivering the high-level service that is synonymous with Matson in the Pacific.

MODE: Break Bulk

Community (<https://www.matson.com/community/index.html>)

Our vessels enable us to offer a breakbulk or project cargo service.

Contact Us (<https://www.matson.com/corporate/contactus>)

Typically, breakbulk cargo is overlength or overdimensional cargo which is unable to be containerized or does not suit containerization. Breakbulk cargo is either stowed on deck or in the vessel's cargo hold.

Examples of breakbulk cargo include:

Timber Masterpacks

Machinery (cranes, excavators, forklifts)

Steel (Mesh, coils, beams, rebar, pipes)

Vehicles (cars, trucks, 4x4)

Boats
